SEPTEMBER 2017 NEWSLETTER

PRESIDENT'S REMARKS

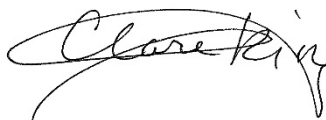

Greetings Fellow Artists!

I know I'm not alone in looking forward to autumn temperatures, football and the coming holiday season. Most of you know that our Fall Show will hang at Cathedral Square through December. Hopefully some holiday shoppers will take a strong interest in some our work. Profitable or not, I know it will be a great show.

I'm sorry some of you missed our last meeting. It was nice to have food, drink and jawing after the meeting. Personally, I think it made the meeting more pleasurable and less of a chore. I hope to arrange something similar at every meeting. Consider volunteering to bring refreshments at our November 18th meeting. Does anyone have a great Bloody Mary recipe? Do Christmas cookies and mimosas go together?

Please keep your eyes open for new members. This is an area of concern at every meeting, I think. But new members seem to beget more new members. So we can expect our numbers to increase at the next opportunity, and a little more at the next one. If any of you learn of any workshop opportunities or some special interest you'd like to suggest, please let Carol Wiggins know.

I look forward to seeing all of you out and about at Art Walks, the Museum, but especially at our next meeting. I can't wait to see your beautiful work at our Fall Show in December.
Cheers,
